Hello Folks -

Just a line. - I've been trying to get a fixed A.P.O. so I can get some mail - and if you think that's easy. I wish you had been with me!! The old one (3779) is just a storage box and will follow me and eventually catch up some day - but definitely, not soon. This new one will do for awhile - but it, too, will change. It seems like there's an A.P.O. for each group, so that it will change as we move around or until we are settled in one place. - As things stand - make it "Bomb. Training Center - A.P.O. 525. % Postmaster, N.Y.C."

I don't know how effective this "V" mail is - so regardless - I'll keep on writing you regular letters, that is, if you don't mind my ramblings too much!

We have all been in fine health - enjoying ourselves as best we could - and don't think we miss a trick! - Each stop brings us upon a batch of our old "cronies" or school mates - so things never get dull or completely uninteresting. - One thing tho - I've now found that Kresler Field was the lap of luxury! By for now - and I'll be writing a real letter.

Love,
Frank
