Hello, Folks,

I think it takes longer to write out the address & stuff at the top than it does to write the contents. But if nothing more, - the V mail has its points - it limits you to one page correspondence!

I haven't a thing to say I didn't say in another long letter I wrote today. - I thought I'd write this and let you know the other is on the way and then you wouldn't give up hope.

Just had supper - and my dose of quinine. - What an awful way to spoil ones dinner! - But now I'm getting the knack of swallowing it quick like so that I don't taste it. - Take it from me, tho - don't ever take any without water to wash it down. - It's not so good lodged up where it can be tasted!

I just came back to the post shortly before supper - now I'll take in a movie if I can get in - and that should make a fair day. - Don't know why I couldn't have had this spare time while in the states so it could have been put to advantage in a little better way - but then - guess there's just no satisfying me, - is there? Be glad when I finally get some mail! -

V - MAIL

Love,
Frank
