Hiya Folks!

See my new A.P.O. number - [650] when I don't answer!

Surprised to be hearing from me or often these days? Don't know just why the sudden inspiration - guess it's because we are kept so busy and I just have time for V-mails if I write so --- I write - V-mails!

Went out visiting again today - chalking up another one on my score - and leaving one more less to go! When I came back home I found I had been moved out of my tent! - Yessir - even my cot was sitting out in the open! Jim & Joe had bargained for another tent - vacated by boys going home - and were in the process of moving! - Our new tent is quite snazzy - It has a wooden floor - and addition on one end - and even a table! Things we were always going to do to our tent but never did. When this one was vacated it was easier to move here than fix ours up - hence the move - It will be much more comfortable if I ever get the time off to fix things up!

Am going out again tomorrow - gee, at this rate I will surely finish up soon - which won't make me mad at all - cause then I hope to be headed homeward! - Better get those fingers crossed - and keep them working over time! Bye now - and remember - I love you too!
